LAND TRUST 101: The Central Savannah River Land Trust is an Augusta-based non-profit committed to safeguarding the forests, wetlands, and open spaces that define our region's character. Our mission is to preserve these areas of natural beauty today, and leave a legacy that lasts for generations.

BASH 101: The Bash on the Banks is the Land Trust's premier fundraising event, annually drawing over 200 of the who's who of the Augusta region. It features live music, activities, and classic southern barbecue in a laid-back yet elegant setting. This year's event will be held on the Savannah River at the Boardman River Pavilion.

WHY SPONSOR?: Sponsoring the Bash is a perfect opportunity to demonstrate your business's commitment to our community's future, through both conservation and development. Bash attendees include key individuals in the real estate, development, and conservation industries, as well as established professionals and business people.
